PRÓIS HITS THE RANGE IN TOP FUNCTION AND FORM WITH THE ALL NEW PRÓIS COMPETITOR ULTIMATE LONGSLEEVE™

Hybrid Flagship of New Próis Competitor Line Brings the Heat for Competitive Shooters and Archers Alike

Today's female handgun, shotgun and archery enthusiasts have given a whole new meaning to 'shooting like a girl' — and they're looking for serious tools to give them an edge on the range. So the experts at Próis Hunting Apparel have answered the call of these focused women athletes, and have introduced the Próis Competitor Ultimate Longsleeve™.

This high performance garment literally provides the 'best of both worlds' across the board. Crafted from the same sturdy 100% polyester wicking fabric featured in Próis' renowned lines of hunting apparel, the Próis Competitor Ultimate Longsleeve provides a carefully engineered athletic design for complete ease of comfort and movement. Plus, its bilateral shoulder padding is tailored to protect both sides — whichever is dominant for shotgun shooting. And it's perfect for women who like a little friendly (or not so friendly) competition on the archery, as well as the firearm, range, since it comes complete with bilateral forearm slap pads and thumbholes in the cuffline to protect during the draw and release.

If you're competing in any style or type of shooting, you need a tightly integrated set of advantages — technical skill, control and practice — to consistently hit the mark. The Próis Competitor Ultimate Longsleeve, part of the company's all new Próis Competitor™ apparel line, is tailored with the same kind of precision with which shooters train for competition. It's made for the female shooter who does it all, and is in it to win it. This new addition to the Próis lineup has a comfortable mock turtle neck and a mid-chest zipper, so it's perfect for warming up or cooling off. It comes in a wide range of sizes and is made in three sharp color combinations: black with pink accents, white with black accents and navy with white accents.

So whether you're a professional shooter or archer or just perform like one — this is the perfect companion for practice or competition.
