CUSTOMIZABLE, COMFORTABLE AND VERSATILE: THE NEW FIELDLINE® PRO-SERIES BLACK CANYON BACKPACK™
PACKS IN EVERYTHING THE AVID OUTDOORSMAN NEEDS

Leave it to Fieldline® — a leading manufacturer of backpacks, daypacks and accessories specially designed for hunters — to target the needs of the outdoor adventurer and hit a bull's eye with each and every one. The new Fieldline Pro-Series Black Canyon Backpack™, takes everything into consideration: The sometimes punishing conditions of the great outdoors, the comfort and safety of the active hunter, and the protection and accessibility of the important gear he or she carries.

Organizing and storing anything from large, bulky items to smaller essentials is a snap with a roomy, top-opening main compartment, a handy secondary compartment and a three-pouch organizer. Everything you need for a day's trek or a weekend expedition will be at your beck and call, including clothing, rangefinders, water purifiers and scents.

The sun may be blazing, but you'll be prepared with a pocket to house your water bottle on one side of the new Fieldline Pro-Series Black Canyon Backpack. A padded back and yoked shoulders provide added comfort, and a truly ingenious feature — Fieldline's Gear-Lock Modular Locking System — offers incredible customization. Use the Fieldline Pro-Series Gear Lock accessories to adjust your pack into multiple configurations, either before your trip or while in the field. With just a few easy steps, your pack will adapt to whatever the situation demands.

Measuring 17"x13"x7" and made from heavy-duty water resistant fabric, the new Fieldline Pro-Series Black Canyon Backpack is available in either Mossy Oak Infinity or Realtree® AP™ camouflage to help hunters blend into any environment.
