Traipsing across streams, kayaking at sea, camping during a downpour – all of these wet scenarios won't put a damper on your outdoor adventures, because the new Outdoor Products® Watertight Cell Phone Dry Box™ is on call and ready for duty.

Designed specifically to fit most cell phones, the new Outdoor Products Watertight Cell Phone Dry Box is constructed of an ultra-clear, polycarbonate, shatterproof material, making it exceptionally rugged.

A durable latch closure and an O-ring ensure a secure, watertight seal, leaving you free to enjoy your hike or trail ride, rain or shine, without a deluge of worries concerning your cell phone.

When you hook the new Outdoor Products Watertight Cell Phone Dry Box to your belt or backpack with the strong woven leash with swivel clip attachment, you'll stay conveniently connected to your phone – and the outside world.
