RELAX IN COMFORT WHEREVER THE ROAD TAKES YOU — WITH THE PORTABLE FARGASON TENT CHAIR™

Road warriors can now “park it” anywhere their RV does with the comfort and convenience of the new Fargason Tent Chair™ from Fargason Outdoors®. With a quick set-up and unbeatable protection from harsh elements like the sun, wind and rain, outdoor recreation enthusiasts everywhere can now sit back, relax and enjoy the beautiful sites and scenes discovered alongside their voyage of the open road.

The Fargason Tent Chair is fully portable and incredibly light-weight (it weighs a mere 8 lbs.) — so it’s easy to swing its convenient carrying bag with strap over your shoulder and tote it anywhere your RV drops you off. Set up your “relaxation station” around the campfire, or carry it down to the lake for the day — it’ll set up in seconds, giving you more time to sit and read, roast marshmallows, or drop your line in your favorite honey-hole.

The Fargason Tent Chair’s integrated wind-resistant canopy shields the user from wind, moisture and the harsh rays of the sun — yet still provides the unforgettable feeling of being one with nature. Whether roadside or seaside, enjoy a cross ventilation breeze by simply unzipping the two large zippered side windows. The chair’s heavy-duty construction allows it to comfortably support up to 250lbs., and its roomy armrests enhance comfort and provide a cup holder within arms reach for your ice-cold beverage. Plus, a handy oversized zippered storage bag also provides an easily accessible home for important items like cell phones, keys and sunglasses.

The Fargason Tent Chair is available in a variety of colors including blue, red, yellow, crimson, camo and checkered flag. And, should you die-hard sports fans choose to wave your home team flag with pride, a roof-mounted flag pouch can proudly post your game-day flag for all to see.

The Fargason Tent Chair is made with the finest materials with careful attention to detail, ensuring you’ll be able to enjoy those secret road-side spots and fun, outdoor activities for years to come.
