TREAT YOUR LITTLE SPORTS FANS TO THE BIG PERKS OF THE PORTABLE AND COMFORTABLE FARGASON TENT CHAIR® “JR”

They are your favorite sidekicks for softball games, RV trips, days at the beach and afternoons on the lake. They are your kids, and don't they deserve the same comfort and protection as Mom and Dad when they are outdoors, rooting for the team or telling stories around the campfire? Sure they do, which is why you — and they — will be huge fans of the Fargason Tent Chair® “Jr”.

Lightweight, portable and easy to set up in a matter of seconds, the Fargason Tent Chair “Jr” scores big points with its large, integrated canopy that shields kids from wind, moisture and the harsh rays of the sun — yet still gives your little guy or gal the feeling of being in the great outdoors. Two large side windows bring in the cool breezes and let your little sports enthusiast follow all the action.

The Fargason Tent Chair “Jr” will easily go everywhere the family goes, thanks to a convenient, backpack style carrying bag with padded shoulder straps. Weighing in at less than five pounds, you will have no trouble getting it from the garage shelf to the back of your SUV. In fact, the kids may just want to swing the Fargason Tent Chair “Jr” over their own shoulders and be off to the exciting game or favorite beach spot.

Once at your designated spot, the kids won't want to leave because virtually everything they could ever dream of will be close at hand. Their juice, water or soft drink will be at the ready in the Fargason Tent Chair “Jr's” integrated cup holder. They can listen to their favorite tunes on their MP3 player (a virtual necessity these days!) as it's conveniently tucked away in the zippered MP3 armrest pocket. Plus, a handy, zippered gear pocket keeps sunglasses, binoculars and snacks within easy reach. Kept deliberately at bay, however, are the harmful effects of the sun. The oversized, full-surround tent canopy provides extreme sun protection in the form of SPF-50, making sure the kids can hang out for hours at a local sporting event or in the distant mountains without Mom and Dad worrying about painful or skin-damaging sunburn.

The Fargason Tent Chair “Jr” is available in a variety of colors and is made with the finest materials with careful attention to detail. These features, and more, ensure your children will enjoy outdoor sporting events, camping, RVing and fishing until they are ready for a well-made Fargason Tent Chair made for adults.
