BUCK WEAR'S® LATEST T-SHIRT DESIGN SHOWS THAT TIMING IS EVERYTHING

Time flies when you're having fun — and so do arrows! That's why Buck Wear® has designed its newest tongue-in-cheek creation to let bowhunters share the message of punctuality: "Time to Let the Air Out."

The attractive prairie dust-colored cotton T-shirt displays Buck Wear's original detailed artwork that portrays the bowhunter's excitement as the moment of truth is approached. The design on the back features a bowhunter waiting to "let the air out" of a whitetail trophy buck amid the autumn woods. Like many Buck Wear T-shirts, the front has the striking Buck Wear logo in the top left hand chest accompanied with a gorgeous trophy buck —every hunter's dream.

Buck Wear's quality sportswear and printing process guarantees the new T-shirts will last and uphold no matter what the day may bring. Like all Buck Wear apparel, the new "Air Out" shirt (model #1122) is offered in a wide range of adult sizes from M to XXL to ensure a proper fit for all hunting and outdoor enthusiasts. Buck Wear's clothing is sold through top hunting, fishing and outdoor sports retailers nationwide.
