RINEHART ANNOUNCES 2019 TOUR DATES FOR R100 TRAVELING ARCHERY TOURNAMENT

Legendary Rinehart Targets® Nation-Wide Event is Great Fun for All Ages and Abilities

Janesville, Wis. — Rinehart Targets®, manufacturers of the most durable and lifelike 3-D archery targets in the world, has announced the much anticipated dates and locations for its 2019 R100 National Traveling Archery Tournament. This year the schedule will include two new stops in Missouri and Arkansas as part of its 16-city tour across America. Each year thousands of archers – recreational to competitive – participate in the coveted tournament throughout the spring and summer, taking aim at 100 life-sized and uniquely-designed targets.

“We work to deliver a full weekend of family fun with our R100 Tournaments,” said James McGovern, President of Rinehart Targets. “Both beginners and experienced archers will enjoy the event as we have something for everyone.”

The R100 tournament is in its sixteenth year, and draws more than 8,000 shooters across the U.S. The family-friendly, two-day event is open to adults and kids of all ages. With 100 of the most unique targets on the market – from life-sized giraffes, hippos and T-Rex dinosaurs, to zebras, and elephants – it is truly a one-of-a-kind event. Rinehart Targets is excited to add two new locations to the schedule in 2019: Smokey Hollow Archers in Palmyra, Mo., and Central Arkansas Bowhunters in Conway, Ark. Smokey Valley Archers in Lindsboro, Kan., also rejoins the tour, which hasn't been on the schedule since 2016.

The R100 shoot features fun games, novelty shoots, raffles and a tournament awards ceremony where archers can win prize packages from event sponsors including: Mathews Inc., Lancaster Archery Supply, Treelimb Quivers, Sword Sights, AAE, QAD, Black Eagle Arrows, Vortex Optics and Orion Coolers.

Registration is now open so check out the schedule above, find a city near you and pre-register at R100.org for the greatest archery tournament in the world!
