FIELDLINE® REVERSIBLE HANDWARMER™ IS THE MUST-HAVE ACCESSORY FOR OUTDOOR ENTHUSIASTS THIS FALL AND WINTER

Being guarded from Mother Nature's unpredictable elements is vital for any safe and enjoyable outdoor adventure, but keeping one's hands warm in inclement weather is a non-negotiable "must" for all hunters. That's why Fieldline®, a premier worldwide hunting gear manufacturer and distributor encourages hunters to beat the cold this winter with its Fieldline Reversible Handwarmer™.

The Fieldline Reversible Handwarmer is constructed of top quality fleece and is available in New Mossy Oak® Breakup® on one side, providing versatile camouflage, and quickly reverses to blaze orange fleece on the other side for maximum visibility, when needed.

Constructed with the hunter in mind, the jacket-style cuffs on either end of the handwarmer provide the ultimate in insulation from the wind and cold, while the 1-inch belt with side release buckle allows for comfortable, portable wear.

The Fieldline Reversible Handwarmer is perfect while in the field or keeping warm during cold mornings and nights at base camp. And, it's so compact it can easily be stowed away in a pocket or pack when the sun gets warm. Like all premium quality Fieldline products, the Fieldline Reversible Handwarmer comes with a lifetime guarantee – the hunter's assurance of performance over the long run.

For more information about the Fieldline Reversible Handwarmer or any of the company's extensive line-up of specialized backpacks, hydration products, waist packs, duffels and accessories for hunting enthusiasts, contact Fieldline at 1919 Vineburn Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90032 • Telephone: (800) 438-3353 •
