PRÓIS® HUNTING APPAREL'S NEW SHERPA VEST™ PROVIDES INCREDIBLE WARMTH AND VERSATILITY FOR THE SERIOUS FEMALE HUNTER

Serious women hunters live for the hunt — and can be found in the coldest weather conditions even their prey find hard to bear. That's why Próis® Hunting Apparel is proud to announce its latest innovation in helping female hunters pursue their hunts harder, no matter the season or harsh weather they encounter, with the new Próis Sherpa Vest™.

Like all pieces in the Próis line, the Próis Sherpa Vest is built with the serious female hunter in mind, providing a perfect fit for the female form, while utilizing the latest technology for ultimate performance when in the field. This versatile vest can be worn over a Próis Ultra Long or Short Sleeve shirt should the sun peek out during the day, or layered underneath any Próis jacket should you be stuck in a tree-stand for long chilly hours.

The Próis Sherpa Vest is constructed with the highest quality plush sherpa fleece, so it can easily provide warmth and insulation when faced with that sub-zero chill. And, should it become necessary to turn up the heat, scapular drop pockets are a perfect home for air-activated warmers — strategically placed across the shoulder blades to quickly warm the entire body. The vest even comes complete with a large Heat Factory® Body Warmer that will easily provide wearers with more than 20 hours of generated heat, perfect for any long day scouting that prized trophy in the cold.

This cozy vest has a spacious lumbar compartment to provide easy access for packing additional lightweight gear in the field. Plus, its signature nylon tricot lining makes it perfect for layering and movement.

The Próis Sherpa Vest comes in Realtree AP HD® and Advantage Max-1 HD® in sizes from XS through XL — so it's a perfect fit for any hunt and any hunter. Like all Próis gear, it's proudly manufactured in the U.S.A.
