FUEL YOUR EARLY MORNING HUNTS THIS FALL WITH HUNTER'S BLEND COFFEE

Coffee with Purpose Made by Hunters for Hunters; Available in both 12oz. Ground and Whole Bean Bags

Mechanicsburg, Ohio – Whether you prefer to ground your own or have it ready for the drip-brewer, Hunter's Blend is the newest great-tasting coffee that will help get hunters up and out into the woods this fall. Responsibly roasted by the avid hunters behind Hemisphere Coffee Roasters, there's no smoother, better-tasting 'cup of Joe' to fuel those early morning hunts.

"Our passion for hunting and the outdoors is ranked right up there with our love for coffee, so we fully understand the importance of a fresh cup of coffee before heading up that treestand," said Paul Kurtz, Owner of Hemisphere Coffee Roasters. "Our mission is to not only offer hunters the finest, highest quality blend of coffee, but also directly support the hunting community as well as the hard-working coffee farmers around the globe," he added.

Hemisphere Coffee Roasters is making a global impact by operating a direct-trade business model and working directly with coffee farmers in top producing locations around the world like Central America, East Africa and Southeast Asia. Through deep relationships with these individual growers, the company can bring to hunters the finest coffee from around the globe. And with every lot roasted in small batches, it's also the freshest.

Hunter's Blend coffee is available in a 12oz. Whole Bean bag, for those who prefer to ground their own coffee, and a 12oz. Ground bag ready for drip brewers ($12.95 MSRP each).

About Hemisphere Coffee Roasters

Hemisphere Coffee Roasters is passionate about creating good coffee and doing some good in the process of creating it. This is why the company operates a direct-trade business model, which means it only works directly with growers from the best producing locations in the world like Kenya, Indonesia, Peru and Nicaragua, where every bean is hand picked by the hard-working people of its community. In fact, twenty-five million families derive their major living from the production of coffee and Hemisphere's Coffee Roasters is dedicated to helping as many as possible. This dedication has thrived for more than 15 years, and because of the company's impactful business model, they have witnessed hundreds of jobs created and people lifted out of poverty.
