GIVE DAD THE ULTIMATE GAME ROOM UPGRADE WITH A GAME ROOM HUNT SERIES DARTBOARD FROM RINEHART TARGETS®

Self-healing Foam Dartboards Bring the Thrill of the Hunt Indoors with Whitetail, Elk and Velociraptor Designs

Janesville, WI — This Father's Day, find the perfect gift for dads who dig the outdoors with Rinehart Targets' Game Room Hunt Series Dartboards. Designed for hunters and archery enthusiasts, these self-healing dartboards bring the excitement of the hunt into the home, cabin, game room, garage or man cave.

Rinehart's Game Room Hunt Series Dartboards offer a fun way for archers to switch from arrows to darts and continue practicing their aim in the comfort of their own home (or encourage some friendly competition at camp). Plus, these dartboards will also work well for blow-guns, air-gun darts and mini crossbows. Molded with the same legendary self-healing foam technology that has made Rinehart a trusted name in the archery industry, these quality dartboards will outlast countless rounds of dart-throwing fun without losing any shape or integrity.

Each Dartboard comes with three darts and is available in three distinct and lifelike designs: Whitetail Deer, Elk, and in true Rinehart fashion, the iconic Velociraptor. The dartboards feature detailed artwork with animal vital target rings similar to Rinehart Targets (as well as additional aiming elements) for an unforgettable game room experience. So, whether your dad is an avid bowhunter, competitive archer or simply enjoys the outdoors in general, this gift is sure to be on target.

"This Father's Day, we celebrate the dads who for many of us, helped us shoot our first bow and introduced us to the outdoors," said James McGovern, President of Rinehart Targets. "Our Game Room Hunt Series Dartboards make a great gift because they combine the same high-quality, self-healing foam dad's experience with our archery targets with a little friendly competition and good 'ol game room fun."
