FULL-THROTTLE COMMUNICATIONS WELCOMES TIFFANI DAWSON AS NEW MARKETING ASSISTANT

Moorpark, CA-based Full-Throttle Communications, Inc. is proud to announce it has added Tiffani Dawson to its team of marketing, advertising and public relations professionals. In her new position as Marketing Assistant, Dawson will play an instrumental role in helping Full-Throttle's long list of enthusiast-driven clients gain a competitive edge in the marketplace, by providing ongoing account management, public relations and marketing support to the agency's top executive team.

"Tiffani is a professional through and through, and her business experience and education will prove extremely valuable to our day-to-day operations," said Jason Bear, agency president/CEO. "In addition to her business savvy-ness and uplifting personality, Tiffani shares our agency's passion for outdoor adventure, and is sure to blend right in with our culture here at Full-Throttle," he added.

Dawson brings a wide variety of business experience to the agency, including an inside sales position where she was charged with successfully organizing community outreach programs for a computer products company. Dawson holds an Associates degree from Santa Barbara Business College, and when she's not supporting the team's dynamic marketing initiatives, you can find her blazing the paths on her morning run or hitting the back trails for a hike.
