“The R100 Tournament is our signature event,” said Rinehart Targets President, James McGovern. “We love being able to put on a tournament that is great fun for both beginners and experienced archers.”

Drawing more than 10,000 shooters last year, the event is in its seventeenth year. A family-friendly, multi-day event at each stop, adults and kids of all ages are encouraged to participate. Serving as both an introduction of the sport to some, and a challenging good time for experienced archers, the event features 100 of the most unique targets, many of which are exclusive to the tournament. Archers will find everything from life-sized lions, hippos and T-Rex dinosaurs to elephants, zebras and even the infamous Sasquatch.

The R100 shoot features fun games, novelty shoots, raffles and a tournament awards ceremony where archers can win prize packages from event sponsors like Lancaster Archery Supply, Treelimb Quivers, Sword Sights, AAE, QAD, Vortex Optics, GAS Bowstrings and more!

Registration is now open so check out the schedule above, find a city near you and pre-register at R100.org for the greatest archery tournament in the world!
