

SERVOTRONICS, INC.

1110 Maple Street ♦ P.O. Box 300 ♦ Elma, New York 14059-0300 ♦ 716-655-5990 ♦ FAX 716-655-6012

August 3, 2016

SERVOTRONICS, INC. IS HIRING AT ITS WESTERN NEW YORK HEADQUARTERS

Elma, NY – Servotronics, Inc. (NYSE MKT– SVT), a designer and manufacturer of motion control components, is hiring for a variety of production and quality assurance positions at its main facility in Elma, NY. The Company is seeking fulltime permanent employees for both entry level and associate level jobs.

“Servotronics offers a rewarding work environment,” said President Kenneth D. Trbovich. “We give our employees the opportunity to have not ‘just a job’ but a career at Servotronics.”

Conveniently located just off the 400 near the village of East Aurora, Servotronics is hiring first and second shift employees for positions including CNC lathe operator, CNC mill operator, grinder, coil winder, quality inspector, and test technician. Available supervisory and office positions include 2nd shift production supervisor, coil department supervisor, production planner, human resources generalist, and quality engineer. Employees have access to on the job training as well as other learning and development opportunities.

To learn more about available positions at Servotronics, visit our career page: <http://servotronics.com/careers/>

Servotronics, Inc. is composed of two groups – the Advanced Technology Group (ATG) and the Consumer Products Group (CPG). The ATG primarily designs, develops and manufactures servo control and other components for various commercial and government applications (i.e., aircraft, jet engines, missiles, manufacturing equipment, etc.). The CPG designs and manufactures cutlery, bayonets, machetes and combat, survival, sporting, agricultural, and pocket knives for both commercial and government applications.

SERVOTRONICS, INC. (SVT) IS LISTED ON NYSE MKT