SERVOTRONICS, INC. SELECTS FULL-THROTTLE COMMUNICATIONS AS NEW PUBLIC RELATIONS AGENCY OF RECORD

Full-service marketing, advertising, public relations and sales management agency Full-Throttle Communications, Inc. of Moorpark, Calif., is proud to announce its new partnership with Elma, NY-based Servotronics, Inc. (NYSE MKT: SVT) – manufacturer of servo control and other components for various commercial and government applications (i.e., aircraft, jet engines, missiles, manufacturing equipment, etc.). Full-Throttle will be handling all media relations efforts for the company effectively immediately.

“We’re thrilled to be working with the Servotronics team, and look forward to telling their story and spreading the company’s message of value, quality and reliability to media and customers across the U.S.,” said Jason Bear, President/CEO for Full-Throttle Communications. “Our experienced public relations team will work to keep the media apprised of the latest business, financial and product news from the company,” he added.

Founded in 1959, Servotronics is an award-winning manufacturer of high quality components, systems and sub-systems for use wherever precise control, reliability and cost containment are primary requirements. The company is well-known for its innovative design and development of products including: servocontrol valves, torque motors, actuators, pressure regulators, metallic seals and many other products which are used in a wide range of applications. These applications range from outer space, military, commercial aircraft and helicopters to ground vehicles, test equipment and precision controls of all types.
